This research is conducted by the University of Siena. Before deciding whether to participate, we invite you to read this page carefully.

Voluntary Nature of Participation. Participation in this study is voluntary and does not entail any benefits related to your academic career, nor any repercussions in case of non-participation. If you choose to participate, you may withdraw at any time without having to provide any justification. Leaving the activity does not entail any penalty other than the loss of any accumulated earnings. The expected duration of this activity is approximately 60 minutes.

Procedure. The study consists of a cultural activity and a questionnaire.

Compensation for Participation. You will receive €20 for your participation. You may choose to donate part of this amount to charity organizations.

Payments. Payments will be made via Amazon gift cards by Business Intelligence Group S.r.l., which collaborates with the University of Siena. To receive the payment, you will need to provide an email address at the end of the activity where you wish to receive the Amazon gift card. The payment will be processed within 15 working days.

Data Processing. All collected data will be stored pseudonymously and securely on a computer at the University of Siena. They will be used exclusively for the advancement of knowledge and may be made public only through scientific communications and/or publications. Your email address will be used solely for processing the payment. Pseudonymous data will always be analyzed in an aggregated form and never at an individual level. The subject to whom the personal data refers has the rights outlined in Sections 2, 3, and 4 of Chapter III of the EU GDPR Regulation No. 2016/679 (<https://www.garanteprivacy.it/regolamentoue>).

If at any point during or after the session you experience discomfort or require clarification, you may contact the research coordinator, Prof. Paolo Pin, at paolo.pin@unisi.it.

Thank you for reading this information and considering participating in the study. By signing, you confirm that you have understood the information and agree to participate.
