end_note	That was the very last question I had for you. Thank you so much for taking the time to complete this interview, I realize that some of the questions were difficult.
	Often, in answering questions such as these, people find that there are issues they would like to discuss further with someone who can give them additional information or support.
	We don't want to leave anyone with concerns that we might be able to help with. Before I leave, I want to let you know that you can contact me or other members of the research team at any time with questions or concerns. You can also go to a local health and psychosocial care providers to discuss the issues you talked about with me today.
	I can give you a referral list if you would like.
	[ENUMERATOR: Leave the care facilities contact list with her. If she does not want to take the list, inform her that she can contact the research team at any time for assistance.]
	Enumerator, give the girl the referral pathways and explain it.
end_question	Is there anything you would like to add or ask me?
	Enumerator, give the girl the signed consent form now.
end2_note	Have a great rest of the day and thank you again for your time
